A FURIOUS RIOT!

It Occurred in New York City Friday Night and Lasted for Hours.

MANY SHOTS FIRED

What is Known as "San Juan Hill" Was the Scene of this Latest Outbreak.

STARTED WITH WHITE MAN'S ARREST

New York, July 15.—"San Juan Hill," the district bounded by Amsterdam and West End avenues and Sixty-first and Sixty-third streets, so called because of its notoriety as a battle ground, was the scene Friday night of a furious race riot, which it required 250 policemen to quell, after many shots had been fired and several persons had been seriously injured

The trouble began shortly after 9 o'clock, when a policeman arrested Edward Connelly for attacking Henry Williams, a negro, and was pursued to the station house with his prisoner by a mob of Connelly's friends, hurling showers of stones and other missiles When the station house reserves turned out the whole neighborhood was in an uproar and whites and blacks engaged in desperate struggles in the streets Torrents of missiles were hurled from roofs and windows. Within ten minutes not less than a thousand men, boys and women, black and white, were engaged in furious combat. The small party of police were overpowered and reinforcements were summoned. On their arrival a cordon was drawn around the whole district and strong patrols made repeated charges down the street in a vain effort to restore order. They succeeded in making a few prisoners and were forced to retreat, fighting every inch of the way, and pursued to the station house by a howling mob.

The worst of the fighting was in Sixty-second street, where from every window and from every roof rained missiles while hundreds of shots were fired. Roundsman Patrick Walsh was knocked down by Joseph B. Smith, a negro, who leaped upon him from a stoop and after attempting to shoot him, struck him repeatedly with the butt of his revolver. Walsh was finally rescued by his comrades.

Inspector McLaughlin arrived shortly before 9 o'clock and realizing how wide sread was the danger, sent hurry calls for reserves In all there were more than 250 men under command of the inspector within twenty minutes.

Squads of men were then sent along the roofs of houses in Sixty-second street, where the fighting was the heaviest. They walked from West End avenue to Amsterdam, clearing the roofs, and found that many chimneys had been torn to pieces to furnish ammunition for the rioters and in the corners of roofs were mounds of bricks, pottery and bottles. More arrests were made and several whites and negroes were rescued from gangs of assailants, but desultory combats continued. Inspector McLaughlin and Captain Gallagher, while passing through, rescued Michael Jacoby, a white man who was being beaten by two negroes armed with rocks. The negroes escaped.

Colored men pursued by whites took refuge on cars as they passed and were followed by showers of bricks and stones as they fled. All the windows in many cars were broken and passengers took shelter in neighboring houses.

Commissioner McAdoo arrived at 11 o'clock and made a tour of the battlefield, the fighting by that time having ceased. He said the riot could not have taken place had not the rougher element been permitted to carry arms. They appeared to have a regular arsenal of weapons as the police found when they searched the prisoners.

In all seven whites and two negroes had their injuries attended to by the ambulance surgeons, but scores of others less seriously hurt were taken to their home by friends,

Five whites and six negroes, among them women of both races, almost all of whom bore traces of conflict with the police were arrested

A picked body of thirty policemen was detailed to occupy the disturbed region during the night and assisted the police of the precinct.

COUNCIL MEETING.

A Short but Sweet Session Owing to hot Weather.

The regular semi-monthly session of council was held Monday evening at 7:30 in the council chamber in the Public building on Howard street. In the absence of President Jenkins, the chair was ably filled by Dr. Kirk. Other members present were: Seibert, Brown, Wise, Keichline and Derstine.

The fire and police committee reported different fires during the last two weeks. Four fires were reported.

Finance committee reported that the tax assessment had been made. The total valuation is $1,619,809. Street is assessed at $8,101.40 boro at $4,052; interest $8,101.40.

Mrs. Mary A. Hazel acknowledged the receipt of $41.00 as full payment for the damage she sustained by falling on the pavement in front of the Y. M. C. A., on Dec. 16, 1904.

Burgess W. Harrison Walker asked council to hurry up the passage of an ordinance compelling the muzzling of dogs within the boro limits This ordinance is now being drafted by the boro solicitor.

Burgess Walker complained that autos were exceeding the speed limit in the boro. It was decided that the authority to stop it was in his hands under the state law.

Burgess Walker turned in $10 in fines and licenses.

A bill will be rendered to Mrs. Louisa Bush for $13 for fire companies service at Pleasant View fire, it being outside boro limits.

With the thermometer standing at about 90 degrees and Dr. Kirk in the chair business was rushed through at lightning speed and the council adjourned at 8:30 after approving the following bills

Was Prominent Business Man, Having Engaged in Various Enterprises Throughout the State

FUNERAL TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The news of the death of William Grauer caused profound sorrow among a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this town, his former home. The Altoona Tribune gives the following particulars.

William Grauer, one of the leading and most prominent Hebrew residents of this city, and one of the best known New York Life insurance agents in the state, died at his home, 2503 Broad avenue, at 12:45 o'clock Sunday morning, of heart failure. He was taken sick about six weeks ago and had since July 4 been confined to his bed He was a patient sufferer and when the end came he quietly and peacefully slept away. The deceased was a son of Ignatius and Rosalie Grauer and was born at Baltimore, Md., on October 8, 1860. When he was aged 14 years his mother died and after this he moved to Bellefonte, where he engaged in general merchandise business with his brother-in-law. In 1880 he moved to Snow Shoe and opened a shoe store there and also became interested in the coal operation around that place until 1887, when he returned to Bellefonte. In 1894 he connected himself with the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, with which he remained until Jan. 1, 1901, when he came to Altoona and became associated with the New York Life Insurance company, with which he was connected at the time of his death. He was known all over the state and was one of the best agents in the service of the company. Had he lived he would have been president of the $200,000 club for the coming year, the highest honor that could be attained by the solicitors of the company. Mr. Grauer was married on November 23, 1881, to Ida Newman, of Bellefonte, who survives him with four children—Rosalie, Miriam, Norman and Arthur. ### St. Ambrose Mission "Little Italy."

An interesting work has lately been begun on the East Side of New York city in Saint Ambrose's Mission in the midst of a population of about 90,000 Italians between 106th and 116th streets.

The Reverend Abraham Cincotti himself an Italian priest of the Roman Catholic church for many years and possessing many letters from his Bishops commending him, has, after undergoing instruction for a couple of years been formally received into the Episcopal church by Bishop Potter, of New York, and now has charge of Saint Ambrose's mission in "Little Italy."

It is a matter of some interest to the people of this section that Father Cincotti was, before his admission into the priesthood of the Episcopal church and after his renunciation of the Papal obedience, a member of Bishop Darlington's old Parish, Christ church, Bedford Ave.l Brooklyn, N. Y., and was a persons friend of the Bishop.

Saint Ambrose's Mission reaches a host of Italian children who are otherwise uncared for in this congested section of the metropolis.

SIX INJURED IN EXPLOSION.

Gas Accumulated in County Clerk's Vault at Charleston, W. Va.

Charleston, W. Va., July 18.—An explosion of natural gas in the record vault at the office of the county clerk at the court house at noon here Friday resulted in the injury of six persons. Col. George W. Patton, attorney, and Chief Clerk Mont Saunders are the most seriously injured, having been inside the vault at the time of the explosion. The former was horribly burned about the face and body, and will probably die.

Saunders is seriously burned, but will recover. Others injured are S. S. Green, attorney, E. E. Harless, deputy clerk; Miss Mary Poindexter, and Miss Fanny Gardner, employes of the office all of whom were in the adjoining office, and are more or less seriously burned The explosion was due to gas which had escaped and filled the vault when closed, and was ignited when the vault was opened and a match lighted. The property damage was slight.

Col. Patton will be remembered by our older citizens being at one time a resident of Bellefonte and conducting a jewelry store on the site now occupied by F. P. Blair & Co.—Editor.

Bridal Couple in Handcuffs.

Chicago, July 18.—M. F. Hanny of Pekin, Ill., arrived in Chicago Saturday handcuffed to his bride. It was supposed to be a honeymoon joke, the humor of which failed to appeal to him. Mr. Hanny was married in Pekin Wednesday evening. "I can stand for the rice and the old shoes," he said, "but this is over the limit.

Just as the train pulled out of Pekin a party of friends entered the car and slipped a pair of handcuffs on the bridal couple as they sat in their state room. Hanny's left wrist was clasped with a band of steel to his bride's right. They were compelled to sit up all night in the stateroom. Everyman on the train with small keys tried to release them, but the bracelets could not be removed.

In the morning a weary couple whose clothing required pressing, stepped from the train, and upon advice of the conductor were driven to the central police station. There, after fifteen minutes work, a detective released them. The bridegroom gave a five dollar bill to the man who united him, while the bride blushed her thanks.

Wm. H. Miller Receives a Promotion.

Miller, who for several years past has been the efficient express messenger on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania from here to Mill Hall has been given a better run and on Monday afternoon left for Punxsutawney where he will make his future home. He will be in the employ of the American Express Co, and his run will be on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg from Punxsutawney to Indiana county. If he likes the place he will move his family to Punxsutawney in the near future. Mr. Miller is one of our best young men and is honest and industrious and although we are sorry to lose him from our midst we are glad to see him getting along so well. His place on the Central will be filled by Walter Armstrong, formerly with Jno. Meese.

Birthday Surprise Party.

On Saturday evening July 1st about fifty of the friends of Mrs. J. Z. Loder met at her home and gave her a genuine surprise, it being her birthday. It was a jolly set, and they played games of all kinds until near eleven o'clock, when all were invited to partake of an elegant feast which the ladies had prepared, and to which all did justice except Mrs. McCallion, and she had no teeth. She received quite a lot of presents. At an early hour all departed for their several homes wishing to meet her again on many more such occasions.

Death of Thomas Bitner.

Thomas Bitner died at his home in Punxsutawney Tuesday and his body was brought to Blanchard Wednesday evening. He was an operator at the former place and died of consumption. He is survived by his wife and baby, also by his mother, Mrs. Daniel Glossner, and one brother. His father was the late William Bitner. The deceased was aged about 26 years and was a young man of good character. The funeral took place Friday afternoon at the home of Daniel Glossner and was very largely attended, Rev. H. I. Dudley conducting the services and interment being made in the Disciple cemetery.

A HIGH HONOR CONFERRED.

Rev. C. T. Aikens of Pine Grove Mills

ELECTED PRESIDENT

Of Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove---Is now the Popular Pastor of Lutheran Church at Pine Grove Mills.

A BUSINESS MAN AND MINISTER.

Rev. Charles T. Aikens, pastor of the Lutheran church, at Pine Grove Mills, This county, since 1888 has been invited by the trustees of Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove, Pa., to take charge of the affairs of the institution and after holding the matter under consideration for sometime he has finally decided to accept

This decision will be heard by the people of Centre county with mingled feelings of rejoicing and regret, for while all will be glad to learn of this mark of honor and esteem which has been conferred upon him, it will be with great sorrow that the departure of Mr. Aikens from the community where he has labored so long and so faithfully will be viewed.

Susquehanna University was formerly known as Missionary Institute and was established to meet the needs of the church in preparing men for the gospel ministry. Ten years ago the charter was changed and a full college course was offered under the corporate title of the Susquehanna University. The institution is beautifully situated in the borough of Selinsgrove on the west bank of the Susquehanna, on an eminence which commands a charming view of the river valley and the surrounding country. The plant consists of old Selinsgrove Hall, Gustavus Adolphus Hall, Seiber Hall, Ladies Dormitory and a new gymnasium, finely equipped. All the buildings are heated from a central plant.

Dr. Focht, the retiring President, has been at the head of Susquehanna for the past two years. He is a gentleman of high scholastic ability, but with the rapid growth of the institution, does not feel himself qualified to cope with the corresponding increase in the business cares attached thereto. He was Assistant professor of Mathematics at State College in 1882 and for many years head of the Preparatory Department at Gettysburg College until he was called to the presidency of the Selinsgrove institution.

Chas. T. Aikens who succeeds Dr. Focht was born in Mifflin county in 1862. He graduated from Susquehanna in 1883 and Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg in 1885, after which he took a three year's course in the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. In 1888 he was ordained a minister of the gospel and later in that same year took charge of the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills, where he has remained up to this time. For the past four years he has been President of the Synod of Pennsylvania and has attained a high reputation as a worker in church circles.

Mr. Aikens has not only worked to benefit the moral condition of the people of this community but has done his best to elevate the commercial conditions, and to that end he has been actively engaged in various enterprises. He is a Director in the State College National Bank, a member of the Nittany Printing and Publishing Co., the Nittany Real Estate Co., and numerous other companies which have done much to improve the business tone of this community.

Thus Mr. Aikens is not only a good minister but also a business man with wide experience and training, a combination that is hard to find. The trustees of Susquehanna University are indeed fortunate in finding a man of Mr. Aikens' high character and attainments to place at the head of the institution.

Birthday Party.

Thursday, July 6th, being the 66 birthday anniversary of Mr. A. V. Smith of Howard township, it was celebrated by his sisters, Mrs. Frank Confer, Mrs. J. L. Smeltzer, Mrs. Hayes Schenck, also Mrs. Smith's sisters, Mrs. Kate McClintic and Mrs. L. E. Bolopue. All reported having a good time and departed wishing their brother many more happy and prosperous birthday.

DEATH OF WILSON D. BROWN.

With a Brilliant Future Before Him.

Wilson D. Brown died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, at Pennsylvania Furnace, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The young man had been ill for about five weeks, suffering from a complication of diseases. Had he lived until December next he would have been nineteen years old.

On June 2 he left Tyrone for a two weeks' vacation from his duties as a clerk in the Farmers and Merchants National bank, in that place. While attending commencement exercises at Susquehanna college, Selinsgrove, where he had graduated one year previous, he was taken sick and went to his home. He was a young man of pleasing address, good habits, excellent business qualifications, and with every prospect of a bright future before him.

Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers, J. Blaine Brown, of Waterford, Juniata county, and Harrison Brown at the family home; also one half-brother, William Brown, of Tyrone, and one half sister, Miss Rebecca Brown at the Pennsylvania Furnace home.

The funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church at Graysville Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. R. M. Campbell conducted the services assisted by Rev. C. T. Aikens. Interment was made at Milroy.

Sallie Hosband Stere.

The death of Mrs. Sallie Hosband Stere at her late home near Unionville, on July 13th, 1905 removed from her family circle and the community one much beloved. The days of her life here were few, she being but 28 years of age. The anniversary of her birth became the day of her death. Early in life she professed conversion and united with the Unionville Baptist Church. She is survived by her husband, Eloties Stere, and two sweet little girls, Mary and Annie. There also survive her an aged mother, Mrs. Mary E. Hosband, three sisters Misses Annie, Emma, and Daisy all at home, and seven brothers, Samuel, George, William, John, Elmer, Wharton, and Arthur. Funeral services were held at the late home of the deceased near Unionville on July 16th, at 2 o'clock p. m., and were conducted by pastor A. C. Lathrop, of Milesburg. The service in memoriam of the deceased were very largely attended by neighbors and friends. Many indeed were the expressions of sympathy for the bereaved.

Death's Honeymoon.

Married only three weeks ago in Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Getz, of Renovo, have both been claimed by death within a week past, Mrs. Getz, a bride of only two weeks, died at Renovo on Friday, July 7, and was buried the following Monday. Only three days later, on Thursday night of this week, Mr. Getz while at work as a brakeman on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad, met with an accident which cost him his life. Thus a home established with promise, was in the same month entirely obliterated.

Clyde Getz was aged 29 years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Getz, both deceased, and was born in Tyrone. He is survived by four brothers and three sisters: Moses, Samuel and Warren Getz, of Tyrone; Mrs. Laura Kennedy, of Sandy Ridge; John Getz, Mrs. Frank Hoover and Mrs. George Wilson, of Renovo. One brother, William, was killed in a railroad accident at Renovo about two years ago.

Lewisburg Has Fifteen Thousand Dollar Fire.

The saw mill, lumber piles and trestle works of the M. S. Kulp Lumber Co. at Lewisburg were completely destroyed by fire Friday morning about 1.30 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown but circumstances look as though it might be the work of an incendiary.

The fire broke out in the boiler room at 1.30 o'clock. A half hour before Mr. Gee, the watchman, had inspected the room and everything was all right. When discovered, the fire had gained considerable headway, and in a half hour the mill had burned to the ground.

On June 9, 1900, a mill on the same site was burned down. The loss in the present fire is estimated at $15,000

Barn Struck by Lightning.

During a thunder storm Monday afternoon lightning struck and badly shattered the barn of C. H. Smull, at Rebersburg.

The electricity followed the wire netting surrounding the poultry yard, near the barn, and played the peculiar prank of stripping a number of chickens of their feathers.

ARCANUMITES MEET.

District Convention Held atLock Haven Tuesday Night.

Tuesday evening a district convention of the Royal Arcanum was he'd in the rooms of Olympic council in Lock Haven and was well attended. Considerable interest was manifested by those present and quite a number took part in the discussion regarding the new system of rates recently adopted by the Supreme council. These new rates go into effect on the first of Oct , but from the time they were first announced they have met with disfavor from Royal Arcanumities in all parts of the country. Hundreds of local councils have entered protests against their adoption on account of the injustice they will work to the older members of the order, and the opposition has become so strong and pronounced that state jurisdictions in a large number of states, where the order has a big membership, are taking steps to have the Supreme council reconvene and amend or re consider the action taken at Atlantic City last May.

The executive committee of the Grand council of Pennsylvania has been called to meet at Harrisburg on July 21, to consider the protests of the Pennsylvania councils, with a view of bringing the question in a regular way to the attention of the Supreme council. The indications are that there will be more than sufficient grand jurisdictions to demand the reconvening of the Supreme body.

The agitation of the new rate question has stirred the order from centre to circumference, but it is the general opinion of those competent to judge that out of this agitation a plan will be evolved that will prove satisfactory to the membership.

Instead of Rev. Dr. Ebbert being at the convention Tuesday night to represent the Grand council, Dr. John A Bouse, of Chambersburg, a district grand deputy of the state, was present in place of Dr. Ebberts, who went to the western part of the state in the interest of the order. Dr. Bouse is no stranger to the members of the Royal Arcanum in this section and he received a cordial welcome. The doctor explained the situation and he was accorded careful attention. After his opening speech the meeting was declared open for discussion and the grand deputy was interrogated on about all the points relating to the new rates. After a full discussion a resolution was unamimously adopted that the present plan be continued and extra assessments collected as needed.

A communication from the grand regent was read, requesting suggestions from the local councils throughout the state be forwarded to the meeting of the executive committee on the 21st inst, and the unanimous expression of the district convention regarding the matter.

District Firemen's Convention may Come Here Next Year.

There is a strong movement on foot to hold the next District Firemen's convention in Bellefonte. The convention this year is to be held in Philipsburg and when the boys meet there this year the local delegation intend to push Bellefonte's claim for all there is in it.

Bellefonte has never had the District Firemen's convention and as she has two one of best volunteer fire companies in the state and our people are noted for their hospitality there is no eason why it should not come here.

Snakes Bite Two.

Friday night before retiring, Samuel Meyer, of Centre Hall, walked from the house to the hydrant, a few steps distant, to get a drink, when a copperhead snake sank its fangs into his foot. He had removed his shoes, making an easy mark for the reptile. The limb was at once bound tightly with a cord, and Dr. Allison called. Mr. Meyer suffered greatly for a day or two.

In the morning Mr. Meyer's mother kept a watch for the snake, and her efforts were soon rewarded by seeing a large copperhead, which was quickly dispatched by the use of a sharp garden hoe.

Mr. Meyer's condition was so much improved Thursday that he was able to walk through town.

Earl Mung, a lad of twelve years, while out picking berries near his home at Pine Grove Mills, was bitten on the hand by a rattlesnake. The youth did not appreciate the danger, and on hearing the reptile sound the note of warning in true rattlesnake style, he made an effort to catch the rattling end of his snakeship.

Dr. Woods dressed the wound, and although the boy suffered considerably, he is on a fair way to recovery.

A $25,000,000 Coal Deal.

The biggest coal deal ever engineered in this state is about to be closed The deal involves 200,000 acres of Greene county coal land located along the proposed routs of the Wabash railroad, and the selling price averages $125 per acre, making a total of $25,000,000 J. V. Thompson, the wealthy operator, is engineering the deal, and is believed to be backed by Geo. J. Gould. The coal land involved takes in the whole Greene county district, and when taken over by the Wabash will forever cut off a competitive line and insure annually a vast tonnage. Some of the coal land was bought from the farmers as low as $26 an acre.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Speak for it!" she cried to doggie,
For she knew in her little heart,
That German Syrup, home's great treasure,
Could health and joy impart.

¶The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. ¶But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup. ¶We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst cough, cold, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in the cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. ¶Two sizes, 25c and 75c. ### Bellefonte vs. The Buckeye State.

Editor of the REPUBLICAN:—

In your issue of July 1st, I notice this statement: There are only six surviving children of soldiers of the war of 1812 in the state of Ohio, also this: There are four children of Major James Armor, of the war of 1812 now residing in Bellefonte. Possibly you may not know them all. Allow me to introduce my sister, Sarah Owens, and myself, daughters of Robert Owen, who served in the same war as a Pennsylvanian volunteer. We are also great-grandchildren of Robert Owen, who served seven years as a private soldier in the war of the Revolution. Possessed of great physical strength he was able to endure the extreme hardships of the war from its beginning to its close. He knew full well, that in any engagement, one or more of his fifteen brothers all citizens of the "mother country" and loyal to the crown, might be in the ranks of the opposing army. The spirit for '76! How much it meant to them, and of us MARY M. OWEN.

Advantage of Buying a Home.

Ten years ago a farmer put his initials on a dollar and spent it with a merchant. Before the year was out he got the dollar back. Four times in six years the dollar came back to him for produce, and three times he heard of it in the pockets of his neighbor. The last time he got it, four years ago, he sent it to a mail order house. He has not seen that dollar since nor ever will. That dollar will never pay any more school or road tax for him; will never build or brighton the homes of the community. He sent it entirely out of the circle of usefulness to him.

Killed by Lightning.

Mabel, sixteen year old daughter, of Wallace Thurston who lives about 1 mile from Gazzam, was struck by lightning during a thunder storm Tuesday afternoon and instantly killed. She was a fine young lady and beloved by all who knew her. The accident has cast a gloom over the entire community.

EQUITABLE AFFAIRS

Will Senator Depew be Asked to Resign.

IT IS SO RUMORED.

Former Governor Odell Comes Out Openly for a Legislative Investigation.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JEROME ACTIVE.

New York, July 13.—The disclosures made in the testimony taken by State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks concerning the Equitable Life Insurance society have caused unusual activity in court and political circles. District Attorney Jerome is gathering material from the testimony taken by Superintendent Hendricks, and it is understood that Governor Higgins has instructed all the state officers to assist Mr. Jerome in the criminal proceedings. Former Governor Odell has come out openly for a legislative investigation.

It is understood that Senator Depew will be asked to resign from the directorate of the Equitable if he does not get out without being asked to do so. Senator Depew is now in Europe and a demand for his resignation will be made by cable. The testimony, say Depew's friends, threatens his political career.

Former Governor Odell in a statement said: "I believe that the people expect legislation which will remedy the existing evils and restore the confidence of the policy holders who have so much at stake. My observation has led me to believe that the connection of the Equitable Life and other insurance companies with subsidiary corporations, such as trust companies and banks, is dangerous and that a necessity exists for a divorcement between these interests.

"There is no reason why insurance companies should not be safeguarded in the same or similar manner as savings banks. The interests are almost identical. The hundreds of thousands of policy holders in this state deserve this recognition at the hands of the present legislature."

None of the officers or directors of the Equitable would today discuss the revelations made. Paul Morton, chairman of the board of directors of the society, after a conference with Thomas F. Ryan, who bought the stock control of the Equitable from James H. Hyde, announced that hereafter no person connected with the Equitable would be permitted to talk of the society's affairs except himself.

More facts are developing to show that Thomas F. Ryan, who bought the stock control of the Equitable, also controls, with several associates, the Mutual Life and Washington Life Insurance companies.

Sweeping reductions in the salaries of various officials and employes of the Equitable sociecty were announced today by Chairman Morton. The decreases will amount to 20 per cent on all salaries over $16,000 per annum, 15 per cent. of the annual salaries between $9,000 and $15,000, both inclusive and ten per cent. decrease from all salaries above $2,500 and below $9,000 a year.

These changes become operative on Aug. 1, next and effect a saving of from $150,000 to $200,000 a year. In the first or 20 per cent. class, are included Chairman and Acting President Morton and Second Vice President Gage E. Tarbell.

PROMISES A SENSATION.

Snyder County Lawyer Deserts the Bar and Quits the Law.

At an adjourned session of court at Middleburg, Snyder county, James G. Crouse, one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Snyder County Bar on Monday presented his petition to with draw as an attorney from the several courts of the county, Mr. Crouse assigned no reasons in his petition, but it is anticipated that he will in the near future make entertaining statements in the papers.

In an interview Mr. Crouse said that when he made his reasons public they will prove of intense interest to every person in Pennsylvania. Friends in Snyder and adjoining counties have already phoned to him expressing a desire that said reasons be made public.

He is of the opinion that his quaint way of relating facts will make the product of his pen more popular, lasting and beneficial than those of Sheldon or Tom Lawson.

Mr. Crouse has taken down his sign and is now forever precluded from practicing law in Snyder county. His petition was filled by order of the Court. Judge McClure said the other day in reference to this peculiar case, that if Mr. Crouse again desired to practice in Snyder county he would be obliged to pass the StateBoard under the new rules.

Every joint fit to a T, and the whole proved an excellent piece of frame work. The women especially had a gala day and enjoyed the occasion immensely. About 60 persons took dinner.

Methodist Pastor Rushes the Growler.

The Rev. Josiah Bawden, pastor of the Providence Avenue Methodist church of Chester, horrified some of his parishioners in Eighteenth street, where he lives, Thursday evening by running after a beer wagon with a pitcher in his hand.

The minister was sitting on his porch when the wagon came along. A pitcher sat on the door stoop. The pastor was wearing his house gown and slippers. Seeing the wagon go by, he seized the pitcher and ran. After a chase of a block he overtook it.

"A quart of vanilla, please," he said to the driver. Then he discovered his mistake.

It was ice cream the minister was after. Explanations followed, and when the good people of the church recovered from their shock they enjoyed a hearty laugh at the expense of the pastor.

Asks Ministers for Aid to Stop Drink Poisoning.

Alarmed at the danger to public health through adulteration of wines and other spirituous liquors, which is growing in proportion daily, but which he is unable to control on account of the non-existence of any law in which to prevent it, Dr. B. F. Warren, chief of the State Dairy and Food Department, has sent out a circular letter to 5000 clergymen in Pennsylvania asking for assistance to suppress the sale of such poisonous drinks.

Prof. Cochran's report that called forth the letter from Commissioner Warren and caused him to seek some method to stop the adulteration of liquor, says:—

Under your administration I have examined about 600 samples of alcoholic liquors. Of these I have reported to your department as adulterated 450 samples. Of the samples of wines, blackberry brandies and blackberry cordials taken by your agents, more than 95 per cent, was found to be grosely adulterated. In fact, it was an exceedingly rare thing to find a sample that came anywhere near being a true representation of the article for which it had been named.

The report is exhaustive and takes up nearly every liquor sold in the State, not one of which is not more or less adulterated.

Wood alcohol, causing nerve atrophy, convulsions, impaired vision, blindness and even death; salicylic acid, causing intestinal derangements, dyspepsia and kidney diseases; coal tar dyes, that are active poisons, and that cause diseases of the digestive tract; sulphites, that have the same effect; red pepper and other powerful irritants are some of the adulterations that lurk in many thousands of bottles and kegs of whiskey, wine, beer and other intoxicants that undoubtedly will be placed on sale within the next year.

The flood of this poisonous stuff has just commenced. A new Legislature will not meet until January, 1907. It is necessary in the meantime that public attention be called to the dangers that lie in the use of adulterated drinks. This should be your work. The seriousness of the situation prompts this personal appeal for friendly help.

The blood is strained and purified by the kidneys. No hope of health while the kidneys are wrong. Foley's Kidney Cure will make healthy kidneys and pure blood. C. M. Parrish.

—It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

An Egg Thief.

For some time the folks living in Bush's Addition, adjoining Bellefonte, missed their eggs, and the supposition was that rats were eating up all the hen fruit. During the past week an incident occurred that surprised everybody—instead of rats, it was the work of black snakes. The following incident was told the writer by Boyd Cowher who declares it is absolutely true.

About two weeks ago a large blacksnake, almost six-feet long, was killed at the rear of Mrs. Sarah Young's lot in Bush's addition. Last Friday forenoon Mrs. Young went to the chicken house to gather the eggs. Imagine her fright when she looked in a nest and there saw an immense reptile coiled in a heap.

She hastily called Boyd Cowher who brought his gun and found the reptile still there with an egg in its mouth, partly swallowed. When it raised its head he shot, cutting the head off with the distended jaws clinging to the egg. The snake was cut in pieces by the shot and from the torn parts pieces of egg shells came out. Mr. Cowher says the snake had swallowed at least a half dozen eggs and the last one in its mouth was the china nest-egg. The reptile was a large one, measuring six feet.

Booming the Bell.

The Bell telephone is being boomed in Penns and Brush Valleys just now. E. M. Gann, representing the contract department of the Pennsylvania Telephone company, has been canvassing the territory and met with good success. The Bell line was extended to Wolf's Store, the extreme eastern end of Brush Valley, connecting a section of country not heretofore reached by wire. Along this line live many wealthy farmers, a number of whom had 'phones installed in their dwellings. The Millheim exchange now has a total of eighty 'phones, a larger number than at any previous time.

At Boalsburg the first "Farmer Line" in Centre county has been established with about ten 'phones on it. The patron are very much pleased with the service, and a movement is on foot to duplicate the line so that a larger number of business houses and private families may be served under similar regulations.

Mr. Gann has been looking over the field in the vicinity of Centre Hall with a view of constructing a "Farmer Line" to connect with the Centre Hall exchange. There is a splendid field there which the telephone company should not fail to develop.

Fatal Accident.

Just two years to the day after he had entered the employ of the railroad company, Edward McCoy met with an accident which cost him his life, at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning July 12, in the Tyrone yard. He was an extra brakeman and was engaged on the yard shifting crew when the sad occurrence took place.

The crew was shifting some cars in the yard and Mr. McCoy was on the track ahead of his train walking backward slowly when his foot caught in a frog, and before he could extricate it the train was upon him. The car passed over his body and he was almost instantly killed, surviving only about five minutes after he was picked up.

The deceased was the son of James McCoy, of Vail. His mother, Mrs. Anna McCoy, died about seven years ago. He was born at Vail April 7, 1883, and was therefore aged 22 years, 3 months and 5 days. On May 18, 1904, he was married to Miss Sadie Steel. To them was born a littleson on July 4, only eight days ago. The taking away of the young husband and father at this time is therefore all the more sad, and many expressions of deep sympathy are heard for the bereaved wife and her infant. The deceased is also survived by his father and four sisters, Mrs. Porter Nail and Misses Amber and Sarah McCoy, of Vail, and Mrs. Walter Lewis, of Tyrone; also by one half-sister, Mrs. A. J. Woomer, of Jersey Shore.

The funeral took place Friday morning brief services at the family home in Tyrone, being followed by the sad journey to Bald Eagle where services were held in the Methodist church. Interment in Bald Eagle cemetery.

PENROSE AND KNOX

They Stand Well With the President, and Are Working in Harmony.

Washington, July 18.—Members of the Pennsylvania official colony here are still talking about the conference which Senator Knox held with President Roosevelt last week at Oyster Bay. There is no doubt of the fact that Senator Knox is one of the closest men in the country to the president. Roosevelt has great respect for his judgment and it is known that questions of the highest importance were discussed at this conference.

Pennsylvania's two United States senators stand well with the president, and they are working in absolute harmony in looking after the interests of their constituents in the Keystone state.

Senator Penrose, in his last visit to the White House, which was just before the Roosevelt family left on their summer vacation, had a very satisfactory talk with the president, and the latter showed his appreciation of the cordial support of the senior senator from Pennsylvania by giving him two important consular appointments that very day.

One of these places went to Maxwell Kennedy Moorehead, of Pittsburg, who was appointed consul to a desirable post in Canada, and the other was handed by B. F. Chase, former chairman of the Clearfield county Republican committee, who goes to Catania, Italy.

Probably in no other state in the union do the two United States senators work in greater harmony than do Senators Penrose and Knox.

Every now and then reports to the contrary emanate from Philadelphia, but they are absolutely unfounded.

Senator Knox in his recent interview in Pittsburg showed that he is in full sympathy with the Republican organization in Pennsylvania and that he believes that the Republican party is quite competent to manage its own affairs without seeking advice or assistance from Democrats or others who are not good Republicans.

Judge Stewart's Popularity.

"Governor Pennypacker's appointment of Judge John Stewart, of Franklin county, to the vacancy on the state supreme bench gave universal satisfaction to all who have the best interests of the commonwealth at heart," declares the editor of the Meadville (Pa.) Gazette. "Judge Stewart is without doubt one of the very best lawyers in the state. For 17 years he has filled the office of president judge of Franklin county, and his decisions have been reversed by the supreme court a fewer number of times than those of any other common pleas judge in the state. He is a veteran of the civil war, where he served in the 126th regiment, P. V. I. He stands for all that is best in Republicanism, and will receive the full party vote should he be nominated for the full term, as he undoubtedly will be."

KISSING AND BLUE LAWS.

A Fragrant Breach of the Peace Committed in 1660.

In the judicial records of the colony of New Haven, now the state of Connecticut, the following entry made in the court of the Governor of the colony appears regarding a flagrant breach of the peace committed on May 1, 1660: "Sarah Tuttle went to Mistress Murline's house for some thread and Mistress Murline bid her go to her daughters in the other room. Whereupon her son, Jacob Murline, came in and took up or away Sarah's gloves. She desired him to give her the said gloves, which he answered he would do if she would give him a kysse. Upon which they sat down together, his arm being around her waiste and her arm upon his shoulder or about his necke, and he kissed her and she kissed him or they kissed one another for about the space of half an hour, which Marian Murline now in court affirmed to be so.

"Jacob was asked what he had to say to these things, to which he answered that he thought that Sarah had with intent let her gloves fall when he came into the room and that he would give her them if so be that she would kysse him. But Sarah hereupon testified that she did not let her gloves fall with intent. Further said Jacob that he tooke her by her hand and they both sat down upon the chest, but whether he kyssed her or she kyssed him he knows not, for he never thought of it since until Mr. Raymond spoke to him at Mannatros and told that he had not layde it to her heart as he ought. But hereupon testified Sarah that she did not kysse him, but being questioned would say not as to whether he had kyssed her or no.

"Mr. Tuttle testified that Jacob had endeavored to steal away his daughter's affections. But hereupon Sarah testified that he had not so stolen her said affections. The governor told Sarah that her misdeed is the greatest; that a virgin should not be so bold in the presence of others to carry it as she had done; for though that part of the kyssing is denied yet much is proved. Sarah professed that she was sorry that she had carried it so sinfully and foolishly, which he saw to be hateful. She hoped that God would help her to carry it better for time to come. The governor also told Jacob that his carriage hath been very evil and sinful and to make such a light matter to it as not to think of it doth greatly aggravate.

"Whereupon the court declared that we have heard in the publique ministry that it is a thing to be lamented that young people should so misconduct themselves. As for Sarah, her misdeeds are very great that she should carry it in such an uncivil, immodest manner as hath been proven. And for Jacob, his carriage hath been very corrupt and sinful, such as brings reproach upon family and place. The sentence therefore concerning them is that they shall pay either of them as a fine 20 shillings to the colony.

Announcement.

On August 31st will be issued the initial number of The Quaker State, a magazine devoted to Pennsylvania history, Biography and Geneology.

The object of the publication is to gather together for preservation as much of the local historical matter of the state which has not been published as may be. To publish biographical sketches of the men and women of Pennsylvania birth or ancestry who have attained distinction in any walk in life; to trace the geneology and history of her families to the original colonial ancestor or to aid others in doing so.

The need of such a publication has long been felt by those who are interested in our state; we have been too modest in presenting Pennsylvanias record to the world.

The magazine will contain fifty pages of reading matter at least; will be printed on fine paper with several half-tone illustrations of historical interest and will in all respects compare favorably with other monthly publications.

The initial number will be largely devoted to the early history of Central Penna., and more particularly to Centre county. It will be complete in itself and of permanent historical value, something worth preserving.

The price of the magazine is 25 cents and the edition will be limited to actual subscribers. All remittances must be made payable to Frank E. Bible, State College, Pa. Send no stamps.

Down on the Dogs.

Down at Selinsgrove the councilmen have taken a vigorous stand against the dog nuisance. Any dog running at large on the streets of the town that is not properly muzzled, is impounded and unless redeemed by the owner within forty-eight hours, is taken out and shot. Bellefonte is overstocked with a lot of dogs that ought to receive similar treatment. The fact that public safety requires it should induce the borough authorities to put some restriction upon the dogs that are too numerously at large in our town.

Gardner---Williams.

A very enjoyable event was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams, a Blanchard, on Wednesday June fourteenth, at high noon.

One hundred invited guests assembled to witness the marriage ceremony of their only daughter, Mable to F. Milford Gardner, of Blanchard, by Rev Dudley, of the Christian church.

The bride was beautifully dressed in white silk trimmed with lace, she carried a boquet of brides roses tied with loops of white satin ribbon, which hung to the floor. The bride was attended by Miss Martha Johnson as maid of honor and Miss Nora Kunes as brides maid, their costumes were beautiful, they carried beautiful boquets of carnations tied with white silk ribbon. The flower girl was Miss Margaret Heverly, she was dressed in white silk and carried a basket of pink roses tied with pink ribbon. The groom was attended by Hugh Glossner and Ottis Stull. The ring ceremony was used. The home was beautifully decorated, on the brides table were pink and white ribbon roses and smilax. The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Confer, she was escorted to the organ by Prof. Chauncey DeLong.

The bride is a graduate of the Blanchard high school, and has been one of the successful teachers of the county. The groom is also a graduate and is engaged in the profession of teaching. They received many valuable and beautiful presents. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served by Mrs. James Bechdel, after which the newly married couple left amid showers of rice old shoes, ringing of bells and the good wishes of their many friends on the 1:51 train for Buffalo and Niagara Falls, accompanied by a large number of friends as far as Lock Haven. On their return they will make their home with the brides parents.

Ten-Foot Blacksnake Cut Up.

A ten-foot blacksnake which for years terrorized residents in Sugar valley; has at last met its fate. The reptile got in the way of a mowing machine on the farm of G. M. Shroyer and was cut to pieces.

Shroyer was running the mowing machine in a field in which the timothy was half as high as a man's head. Suddenly his team shied and ran. He caught fleeting glimpses of a large reptile as the animals dashed away. When he finally halted the team he found the knives of the mower stained with blood.

Going back over the path of the mower Shroyer found the body of the snake, cut in three sections, a tail section of two feet, a middle section of four feet, and a head section of four feet. The mouth of the serpent was wide open and its fangs were still feebly moving when Shroye found it.

For years there have been stories of a large serpent in Sugar valley and the belief prevailed that it was a boa constrictor that had escaped from some passing circus. Shroyer's mower, however, seems to have settled the snakeship's identity. The reptile was of the coal black variety and; judging from its immense size and thickness; was many years old. The body of a full grown rabbit was found within the serpent.

"Peeps" Under an Ash Pile.

A short time ago Mrs. J. R. Sechrist, of Centre Hall, went away on a short visit, and before leaving told the members of the family to look after a hen that she had set almost three weeks previous. During Mrs. Sechrist's absence the hen concluded to take a vacation, and instead of sitting on her nest perched on the roost. On the return of the mistress of the Sechrist family she was told of the bad behavior of the yellow hen. The eggs were counted "spoiled" for good, and were disposed of by being placed on a manure pile and later covered with wood ashes. This was done to abridge any disturbance in case the eggs were broken. Up to this point there was nothing striking about the incident, but forty-eight hours afterward Rev. Sechrist heard the chirping of little peeps, and upon investigation discovered that the faint sounds came from the little mound underneath which was supposed to lay a setting of bad eggs. The minister could scarcely believe his own ears, but took a stick and began stirring about the ash heap, when, what do you think! eight peeps were unearthed. An accident happened to one of the little chicks, but the remaining seven orphans are in the pink of condition.

Headache Cure Warning.

Philadelphia, July 17.—After a chemical analysis of the headache powder, an overdose of which caused the death of Mrs. Mary Bispels, 18 years old, 3040 East Thompson street, Coroner Dugan issued a statement warning the public against the indiscriminate use of these medicines.

The Coroner says the powders in question do not differ chemically from the medicine that a physician would prescribe for headache, but the danger is from the indiscriminate use of these prepared powders.

A post-mortem examination showed that the woman's death was due to heart disease, induced by an overdose of the headache cure.

Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

"Py the great balls of dar! This is the worst ever," said the man with the cold.

"Dow I'b sufferid from a rose code and id wo'd leab me for two weeks. Thed I get hay fever lader od od between the two I'll be all id by frost tibe', And the disconsolate sufferer went on down street. His eyes were red and he appeared to be a fit candidate for a hospital cot.

It's queer, though, how many suffers from the rose "cold" there are at the present time. The sufferers claim that "when the roses blow again" each year and the petals fall, or when the pollen flies through the air, they get a "rose cold".

It's just like hay fever, so they say. And incidentally, all those sufferers who have handkerchiefs to use should prepare to use them soon, because the festive little ragweed is almost ready to begin his annual campaign.

There's any number of women and men in Bellefonte who are anxiously watching the calendar. Different people get the fever at different times. Some connect with the weed early in August, others late in July and others in September or the latter part of August. And the fever sticks, too, until the first frost comes. Those who can afford it go to the Adirondacks or other free-from-fever-of-the-ragweed resorts. Those who can't stay here and look sorrowful and downhearted and assist in making laundrymen rich by their excessive use of handkerchiefs. A favorite resort for sufferers is Snow Shoe where it is said that relief is found.

Mother Crushed Babe.

The Westfield Free Press tells of the shocking death of a child in a runaway caused by a firecracker, as follows:

"As a result of a runaway caused by some one throwing a giant firecracker which exploded close to a horse driven by Albert Jenks of Greenwood, the five months old child of Mr. Jenks is dead, a daughter has her leg fractured and Mrs. Jenks is badly bruised, as is Mr. Jenks.

"The runaway occurred on North Main street, the horse running off the road at the cheese factory and against the old cheese vats, overturning the wagon, which contained Mr. and Mrs. Jenks, a daughter and five-months-old child. All were thrown out, Mrs. Jenks falling on the child. The baby's head was crushed and the child lived but five hours."

Miraculous Escapes.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 18.—J. S. Sanders, a veteran journalist of this city, his son-in-law, Dr. Morgan Weller and Mrs. Weller had a miraculous escape from death by being run down by a Pennsylvania coal train at the Barney street crossing Sunday evening. The party was crossing the tracks in an automobile and were caught by the train which was backing down from the yard.

The automobile was dragged nearly 200 feet and its occupants were hurled down a twenty-foot embankment. Mr. Sanders had a leg broken in two places and is injured internally and Dr. and Mrs. Weller badly shaken up and bruised.

SADIE ROBINSON.

Pretty Girl Suffered From Nervousness and Pelvic Catarrh—Found Quick Relief in a Few Days.

NERVOUSNESS AND WEAKNESS CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

Miss Sadie Robinson, 4 Rand street, Malden, Mass., writes:

"Peruna was recommended to me about a year ago as an excellent remedy for the troubles peculiar to our sex, and as I found that all that was said of this medicine was true, I am pleased to endorse it.

"I began to use it about seven months ago for weakness and nervousness, caused from overwork and sleeplessness, and found that in a few days I began to grow strong, my appetite increased and I began to sleep better, consequently my nervousness passed away and the weakness in the pelvic organs soon disappeared and I have been well and strong ever since."

Crows and Epidemic Ruin Tadpole Crop.

The state's crop of tadpoles has failed and the state fisheries department is unable to fill any of the applications for them.

Chief Clerk Barton D. Evans, of the fisheries department, is sending a number of application blanks for tadpoles to W. T. Creasy, of Catawissa, has just written saying that he is sorry no more applications for them can be filed this year, as all the tadpoles on hand have been shipped.

A peculiar epidemic overcame those at the Erie, Corry and Bellefonte fisheries, as all died suddenly in a night. In consequence of this loss the state commissioner at once ordered Superintendent Buller of the Wayne county hatchery, to ship every tadpole he had immediately, and now the department has none.

The experience of the department is that they are not easy to propagate, as is generally imagined. Not only are they subject to epidemic, but there are other causes which remove them. Superintendent Buller, at the Mount Pleasant hatchery, stocked several ponds with young frogs, and they were thriving finely when he noticed that they were disappearing in large numbers.

Not until he established a watch at the pond did he learn that several flocks of crows had discovered that the young frogs were more delectable morsels, and descended upon the ponds by the hundreds, depleting some of them in a night. Scarecrows have been placed about these ponds and the crows have been frightened away.

Storm Razes Church and Damages Farms

A storm of particular violence swept over the eastern part of York county Friday and the damage done amounts to thousands of dollars. Nearly all phone wires are down and the real extent of the ravages of wind and rain is not known. Standing crops were ruined in many section.

Emanuel Evangelical church, in process of erection on Ball avenue, in York, was blown down, and the residence on the Keesey farm, near the city, was damaged by lightning, John Stubb and wife of Philadelphia, who were sitting on the front porch, were badly stunned.

The barn on the farm of Edward Houser, near Hellam, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed. The summer's crops and all the farming implements were burned. The loss is about $6,000.

Three miles from Hellam lightning struck the barn on the farm of the Gohn sisters and destroyed it, together with the summer crops, farming implments and some stock. The loss is about $5,000. Two large barns were struck in the neighborhood of East Prospect and were totally destroyed.

The Coal Situation.

According to reports given out by the various coal operators through the north of Cambria county, the outlook in the mining regions will soon again assume a rosy aspect, both for the operating companies and their employes. The coal business during the past two months has been about at its worst, they say; this, up until about the middle of August, representing the slackest season of the year. Mining operations invariably grow dull during this period and many men are thrown out of employment as a consequence. But if the statements of some of the best known and most extensive operators in Cambria county may be considered reliable, within the next few weeks the coal mining business will be better than ever. Already the markets have ceased to become sluggish and the indications are that operations, will be begun on a heavy scale shortly and employment be afforded to many more men than heretofore.

If this condition prevails in the Cambria region, the same state of affairs is likely to prevail in this and other mining regions. It is to be earnestly hoped that better days in the coal business are near at hand.

Lawson Scores Rockefeller.

Minneapolis, July 17.—Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, was the guest of the Minneapolis Commercial Club. Mr. Lawson spoke before 300 members of the club after luncheon. He said, in part:

"I have several millions myself, and I wronged the American people in getting it. But I did not know it at the time. When the time comes I will give that money back to them. John D. Rockefeller is worth $500,000,000, and I can sit down and show you in a week's time how he got every penny of it. Every dollar that John D. Rockefeller has he got dishonestly.

"If I live, I'm going to make the American people sell every dollar's worth of stock they have, and by that time they'll know better than to buy back."

Hot Wave to Continue.

Washington, July 18.—The Weather Bureau last night announced that there was no prospect for several days at the least of a let up of the extreme heat which has extended over the country for the past few days. The entire country from the Mississippi Valley eastward to southern New England and the Florida coast is in the midst of a well marked midsummer hot spell. The maximum temperatures today were as follows:

Philadelphia 96; Chicago 94; Cincinnati 94; New York 94; Detroit 94; Washington 93, St. Louis 92; Pittsburg 92, Boston 90.

Boy's Body Found in Fish's Stomach.

Naples, Italy, July 18.—A story which equals the warm weather tales of the sea serpent comes from Messina, Sicily, and has aroused a great deal of interest.

A boy of eight disappeared several days ago and no trace of him could be found, although a systematic search was made of the entire neighborhood. Saturday fishermen caught a dog fish which measured seventeen feet, and when the monster was cut open the boy's body was found intact in the stomach of the fish. The mother of the boy has positively identified the body as that of her son.

Death of a Former Bellefonter.

George G. Tate, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of McKeesport, died in the hospital in that city Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The cause of his death was dysentery. The deceased was color sergeant of the 110th Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was Commander of Grand Army Post of McKeesport.

He is survived by his wife, four daughters and two sons. He is a brother of John T. Tate of Bellefonte.

He was quite well known in Bellefonte and his many friends will learn with regret of his death.

Gossip a Humming Bird.

Gossip is a humming bird with eagle wings and a voice like a frog horn. It can be heard from Dan to Bersheba and has caused more trouble than all the bedbugs, ticks, fleas, moequitoes, coyotes, grasshoppers, cinch bugs, rattlesnakes, sharks, sore toes, cyclones, earthquakes, blizzards, smallpox, yellow fever, gout, indigestion, than this great United States has known or will know when the universe shuts up shop and begins the final invoice. In other words, it has got hell and war both backed up in the corner yelling for ice water.

Sixty-Six Killed at Worship.

Fermo, Italy, July 18.—The roof of the chapel of the women's hospital fell in during the celebration of mass, killing 16 women and 50 children and injuring 16 women and a large number of children. The injured have been taken from the ruins.

Spider Bite Kills Noted Preacher.

Hamilton, O., July 18.—Rev. David Marion Weisman, widely known in Ohio and Indiana, died of uraemic poison at his home in Oxford as the result of a spider bite he received in Gas City, Ind., six weeks ago. Blood poison and complications that finally proved fatal resulted.

The well drillers are having their hands full of trouble. First their drill broke in two, one part sticking fast in the well. After a great deal of trouble they got it out of their way and then began to case the well when they found that the hole was crooked. They then filled it up again as far as to the crook leaving the tools down in the well. Since writing the above I learn that on Monday night they succeeded in getting the drill out and resuming drilling. We are all hoping that they may be successful in finding something valuable in the bosom of mother earth.

Questionable Post Cards Barred.

In the post office crusade against impurity in the mails, attention has been called to questionable souvenir postal cards. He who blows in his penny for the card that bears the inscription "I'm haying a devil of a time, with the devil represented by a flaming red figure of his Satanic majesty will be greatly disappointed when he learns that the cent stamp affixed carried his cheerful message to Postmaster General Cortelyou, instead of his immediate chum at home.

Forcible Facts.

One-sixth of the deaths from diseases are due to consumption. Ninety-eight per cent of all those who have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for "weak lungs" have been perfectly and permanently cured Cornelius McCawley of Leechburg, Armstrong Co., Pa., had in all eighty-one hemorrhages. He says : "My doctor did all he could for me but could not stop the hemorrhages, and all gave me up to die with consumption." What doctors could not do "Golden Medical Discovery" did. It stopped the hemorrhages and cured their cause. This is one case out of thousands. Investigate the facts.

Quaint Marriage Contract.

The manner of procedure to become married by the Friends, or Quakers is simple but impressive. Below is given a copy of the marriage contract made fifty-seven years ago by William Iddings and Sarah Reynolds both of Centre county. There were fifty witnesses to the contract all of whom signed their names. This interesting legal document reads as follows :

Whereas William Iddings, of Boggs Township, in the County of Centre, in the State of Pennsylvania, son of Joseph and Margaret Iddings, of the same place and Sarah Reynolds, daughter of Israel and Sarah Reynolds, (the latter deceased) of the Township, County and State aforesaid, having in writing laid their intentions of marriage with each other before the Monthly Meeting of the religious society of Friends, held at Bald Eagle and having consent of surviving parents their said proposal of marriage was allowed of by said meeting. Now these are to certify whom it may concern that for the full accomplishment of their said intentions this twelfth day of the fourth month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight they, the said William Iddings and Sarah Reynolds appeared in a meeting of the said people held at Bald Eagle and the said William Iddings taking the said Sarah Reynolds by the hand, did openly declare that he took her the said Sarah Reynolds to be his wife promising with Divine assistance to be unto her a loving and faithful husband until death should separate them. And then in the same assembly the same Sarah Reynolds did in like manner declare that she took him the said William Iddings to be her husband promising with Divine assistance to be unto him a loving and faithful wife until death should separate them. And moreover they the said William Iddings and Sarah Reynolds (she according to the custom of marriage assuming the latter name of her husband) did as a further confirmation thereof then and there to these present set their hands.

William Iddings,
Sarah Iddings.

Tax Rebate for Wide Tires.

Deputy Attorney General Fleitz gave an opinion to Highway Commissioner Hunter recently to the effect that township supervisors or commissioners must credit persons with one-fourth rebate on both the work tax and money assessed on property owners in townships for road purposes in return for the use of four-inch tires on draught wagons. An act of 1901 makes this provision but the supervisors of a township wanted to allow a rebate on the tax only.

Expensive Letter Writing.

Mr. Kipling, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and a few other writers are reputed to have received something like a dollar a word for some of their writing, but this is small enough beside what was paid at an auction in London the other day for a letter by Mary Stuart. It brought $4,500 and the average per word was $3.93. But Queen Mary's letter writing was expensive. It cost her—among other things—her head and her reputation.

The Call of the Wild.

Spring fever gets
A fellow so !
Just every bird
Yells out: "Hello!"
Just every stream
Seems coaxing one
To where it wimples
In the sun !
And every tree
On every hill
Just beckons till
One can't keep still,
And cattle low,
And bees ba-zoom,
And roses fling
Their sweet perfume,
And blossoms nod
Up to the sun
Out where the grassy
Billows run.
And purple thistles
Have grown tall,
And morning glories
Top the wall,
And trumpet blooms
Light up the trees,
And daisies cling
About your knees,
And everywhere
And everything
Joins in the chorus:
"Say, its spring!"
And you get wild
To up and go
Away but where
The cattle low,
Out by a stream
At break of morn,
Out where fish tales
Are being born.
—J. M. Lewis, in Houston Post.

—Under the strong impetus given by the President, the investigation of the department of Agriculture's bureau of statistics is moving right along. The President has taken the whole matter out of the hands of Secretary Wilson and has confided it to the Department of Justice, and Solicitor General Hoyt and District Attorney Beach are pushing the investigation as rapidly as circumstances will permit. It is generally believed that John Hyde, chief Statician of the Bureau, will be asked to resign when the investigation is concluded. It is not shown that Mr. Hyde was guilty of anything in the least savoring of dishonesty but it is claimed that he has manifested serious incompetence and a grave lack of administrative ability and that the investigation will show that he is not up to the heavy responsibilities which must necessarily devolve on the Chief Statistican, the most important of which is the capacity to judge men.

—The appointment of M. Witte, vice M. Muravieff, as Chief Russian plenipotentiary to the peace conference is regarded as an exceptionally favorable indication that a lasting peace will be the result of the conference. Although it has been deemed impolitic to discuss it, it is admitted that grave apprehension was felt over the selection of M: Muravieff and the Russian peace party had from the first urged that M. Witte, who opposed the war with Japan originally and who has long been a sincere advocate of peace, be substituted. The arrangements are being rapidly perfected for the meeting of the conference which is to occur early in August at the Portsmouth navy yard. The place is ideally situated for such meetings. The Navy yard occupies an island in the mouth of the harbor where none may land without permission from the commandant and intruders can thus be kept at a distance.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitution, al treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co, Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

To Arrest Mothers Who Mistreat Babies.

Beaver Falls mothers must protect their babies from the sun's burning rays, or H. M. Close, the humane agent will prosecute them for cruelty to children.

Officer Close has caused the publication of an edict warning all mothers that arrest would follow the wheeling about of children in go-carts not covered with parasols.

The majority of the mothers are extremely indignant over what they say is the unwarranted interference of the health officer. They say they know how to handle their babies better than "any old man does." A number of them have decided that in case of arrest they will make a test case and fight it through all the courts.

—There has been a tendency on the part of periodicals on house decoration to select materials which are far beyond the means of the average home. A new monthly, Interior Decoration, is to be issued next month from 19 Union Square, New York, which will bring to the average home most beautiful examples of every type of room decoration. The new magazine will make its readers acquainted with what is being done by eminent decorators of this country and Europe, with the correct lines along which room arrangement should be carried, and with the correct and available in carpets, wall hangings and tapestries. The profuse illustrations, with which each issue will be liberally supplied will form admirable suggestions for the treatment of all parts of the home, and the new periodical will be well worth its subscription price of 1.00 per year. Messrs. Clifford & Lawton, the publishers, have already achieved authoritative standing as publishers of The Upholsterer for two decades. Price, ten cents a copy.

—An Altoona man is wanted by the Johnstown police. Samuel Miller took sick in an alleged house of ill repute in Johnstown, conducted by Mildred Caldwell. When Miller went to the house, Miss Caldwell claims, he, was accompanied by a man from Altoona. Miller died at the hospital after being taken there by the police. The companion of Miller is said to have returned to Altoona and now the police are looking for him, believing that he could throw some light on where Miller secured the "dope" which Miss Caldwell claims caused his death. The police arrested Miss Caldwell and eleven inmates. As yet, however, the Johnstown police have not asked the Altoona police to aid them in locating Miller's companion. Miller was 27 years old and married. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the man came to his death as the result of opium poisoning, taken voluntarily or administered by some person unknown.

—Upon the request of the sheriff at Gadaden, Ala., the governor has wired the captain of the military company at Gadsden to be in readiness to protect five negroes in jail there charged with assaulting and murdering a white woman The jail is said to be surrounded by an angry mob. Mrs. Smith had been attacked on the roadside, and after having been repeatedly assaulted was dragged by her hair down an embankment over rocks and stumps into a clump of bushes, where she was left after efforts had been made to conceal her body. The details of her condition were shocking, and her neck was broken. A pair of scissors and a case knife found close to her body evidently aided her in the struggle.

—Sergeant Sylvester Farrell, Troop F, Eighth U. S. Cavalry, was drowned near Maple Island, in the St. Lawrence river, While reaching for his hat, which had blown from the launch in which he was sailing, he fell overboard and sank immediately. His body was recovered later.

THE GREAT ICE AGE.

How Its Passing Left Its Record In Gravels and Rocks.

Some 10,000 or more years ago the conditions which had brought about the great ice age where beginning to change. The elevated land began to sink, and a higher temperature slowly followed. The long winter was gradually drawing to a close, and the great springtime of the world was beginning to hasten its influence upon an ice covered land. Tons, rather mountains, of ice began to melt, and the water filled the river valleys to overflowing. Gravel, sand and mud were borne along by these raging waters and deposited wherever the conditions were favorable. Ice rafts covered the surface of the flood, bearing rocks and bowlders from more northern lands.

All rivers which had glacial sources were greatly influenced by the final melting. As the southern part of the ice sheet rested over northern Pennsylvania, the Delaware and the Susquehanna were typical rivers of the age. The rocks and gravels which line their banks show how well they have kept the record. In the Delaware valley brick clay and gravel are laid out in beautiful terraces, especially at Stroudsburg and the Water Gap. Here the waters rose some 200 feet, and an artificial dam is supposed to have formed the river into a broad lake. The Indians, it is said, have a curious legend about this flood. They tell us that the "Minsies" were the first race which dwelt here, and the region roundabout they call "Minisink," meaning that the "waters are gone"—a vague remembrance perhaps of the postglacial floods.

THE GIFT OF GAB.

Why Stephenson Thought There Was No Power Equal to It.

When George Stephenson was visiting the seat of Sir Robert Peel at Drayton on one occasion, says the writer of "Famous British Engineers," there happened to be present Dr. Buckland, the scientist, and Sir William Follett, the famous advocate.

Stephenson discussed with Dr. Buckland one of his favorite theories as to the formation of coal and, though undoubtedly in the right, was ultimately vanquished by the arguments and oratory of the doctor, who was a better master of tongue fence than himself. Next morning while pondering over his defeat in the solitude of the garden he was accosted by Sir William Follett and confided to that gentleman the story of his failure.

Sir William, acquainted with the details of the matter in dispute, agreed to take up the case and soon afterward attacked Dr. Buckland on the subject. A long discussion ensued, in which the man of law completely silenced the man of science, who was at last compelled to own himself vanquished. Sir Robert Peel, highly amused at this example of "tit for tat," then turned to the inventor and inquired, with a laugh:

"And what do you say on this matter, Mr. Stephenson?"

"Why," he replied, "I will only say this—that of all the powers above and under the earth there seems to me no power equal to the gift of the gab."

Blois' Beautiful Staircase.

New or old, Blois is an amazing achievement of the human brain and the human head. The great staircase in the courtyard, an outside one, forming an essential part of the elevation, is, of course, the masterpiece of wonder and delight. There is nothing like it in the world, and probably there never will be. The staircase of the Paris Opera—an interior one, by the way—would have everything to fear in the comparison. The other is a mass of the richest and of the purest ornament, with a beautiful proportion between its shadows and its lights. It is characteristic of the spirit in which such work was done that it is not always easy to give due gratitude to architect or to stone carver.—Richard Whiteing in Century.

An Astute Weather Prophet.

"When in doubt," said a southern senator, "we should imitate the example of the astute weather prophet. This prophet walked into his inner office one day and said to his junior clerk, 'Well, how are the indications for tomorrow?' 'Mighty uncertain, sir,' the junior answered. 'I hardly know what kind of a prognostication to make out.' 'Oh,' said the chief, 'just make it fine weather, with local rain. Then if it is fine we are all right, and if it storms that will be one of the local rains of our prophecy.'"

Suburban Attractiveness.

Farmer Takeminn—Why, ye jest walk over ter Pokeville an' take th' stage to Hen Lake an' the steamer ter Moose Landin' an' then climb up Skeeter mountain ter what they call "Lover's Leap," and thar ye git th' view, an' it's a dandy.—Puck.

Furred Kettles.

A furred iron or copper kettle is easily cleaned. Place it empty over a clear fire for a short time. This will loosen the chalky deposit, which can then be removed. To prevent the kettle from furring again keep a large marble in it or an oyster shell will answer the same purpose.

Heaviest Girl Dead.

Mary Shadow, the largest woman in Pennsylvania, died Friday night in Middletown She was 22 years old and weighed 450 pounds. Death was due to heart failure.

Miss Shadow had been confined to bed almost from infancy, her weight being too great for strength. She resided in Middletown since her Rockville home was destroyed by fire, on which occasion it required eight men to carry her out of danger.

Miss Shadow was once admitted to the hospital at Harrisburg for treatment for her infirmity, but all efforts were without result and she was discharged uncured. When being moved from one place to another, a furniture van was used, that being the only vehicle large enough.

STARVED OUT.

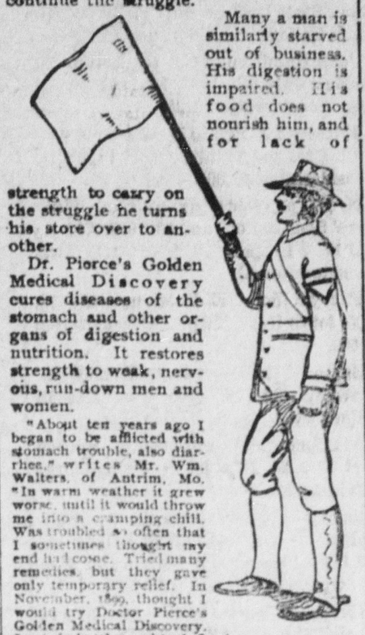
Many a garrison has been forced to give up the fight and hang out the white flag of surrender, when lack of food has weakened the men past all power to continue the struggle.



Many a man is similarly starved out of business. His digestion is impaired. His food does not nourish him, and for lack of strength to carry on the struggle he turns his store over to another.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores strength to weak, nervous, run-down men and women.

"About ten years ago I began to be afflicted with stomach trouble, also diarrhea," writes Mr. Wm. Walters, of Antrim, Mo. "In warm weather it grew worse, until it would throw me into a cramping chill. Was troubled so often that I sometimes thought my end had come. Tried many remedies, but they gave only temporary relief. In November, 1899, thought I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I got six bottles and took five in succession, then thought I would wait for a time and take the one left. Soon found I had symptoms of the trouble coming back, so took the sixth bottle and it cured me. I have enjoyed the best of health this summer, and the credit all belongs to your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can't express my many thanks to Dr. Pierce for his remedy, for it did so much for me. Words cannot express how severely I suffered.

"If any doubt the above statement let them address me, and I will take great pleasure in answering."

AN EYEOPENER TO DOCTORS

Any doctor that can't cure all female diseases without an examination, should have his diploma taken from him and himself dropped out of sight. I have a remedy, of my own manufactory, that will cure all female diseases and I don't care how long standing. I can prove that it has cured women fifteen years ago and are cured yet Any doctor that can't go through with a confinement without using an instrument, should be prosecuted and put out of existence. I have a simple herb, if taken, will cause easy and safe delivery without doctor or instrument and I will send the article to any woman for 50 cents and guarantee success. JOHN KESIGLE,

EXCURSIONS TO THE WEST

To the Pacific Coast—to California, Oregon, Washington—round-trip, long transit and return limits, liberal stop-over privileges.

The rate is practically on the basis of one fare for the round trip. Of course, if you wish to visit both California and Oregon or Washington, the cost is slightly more.

These reduced rates are in effect on certain dates in months of May to October, inclusive. They apply from all Eastern points via Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis gateways. The Rock Island System will take you up in either Chicago or St. Louis, or at hundreds of other Middle West points and carry you to the Coast in through Standard or Tourist Sleepers with unexcelled Dining Car service. The Rock Island also affords a choice of routes: on the "Scenic" route you can stop off in Colorado—see Salt Lake City—visit Yellowstone National Park; on the "Southern" route you can go via El Paso, thru New Mexico, then "up coast" to San Francisco and on to Portland or Seattle if desired.

In short, these Pacific Coast excursions offer an unusually good chance to see our western country in a comprehensive manner.

If you desire to go only as far as Colorado, there are excursion rates in effect to that section and return, all summer long, specially reduced June 30 to July 4, August 12 and 13, and August 30 to September 4. Extension trips to Ogden or Salt Lake and return at low cost also.

From September 15 to October 31, 1905, one-way tourist or "colonist" tickets will be on sale to California and the Pacific Northwest—about half regular fare.

If interested, send name and address on this coupon, designating which booklet wanted and to what point you plan to go. Name probable date of start also, so we can advise definitely with respect to rates, etc.

TIME TO "STAND PAT"

Democrats Always Seek Encouragement In "Off-Year" Campaigns.

REPUBLICANS LOOK AHEAD

Party in Pennsylvania Must Line Up With the President for Coming Congressional Contests.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, July 11.

Republicans of Pennsylvania are going to "stand pat."

They are going to line up again with President Roosevelt and show him that he has their full confidence and support.

Within the last 24 hours the chairmen of the Republican county committees throughout Pennsylvania have received communications from Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican State committee, warning them of the danger that lies in over confidence and seeking to impress upon them the importance of perfecting the county organizations so as to insure the polling of a large Republican vote in November next.

While it is not to be expected that Pennsylvania will, in this "off year," be able to repeat the unprecedented majority of 505,000 given Roosevelt at the presidential election, Chairman Andrews is eager that every effort shall be made to get out a large percentage of the Republican vote so as to keep the majority under the circumstances up to the highest possible figures. That the chairmen and other members of county committees throughout the commonwealth intend to co-operate in this laudable work is quite manifest from the reports that are being received from every quarter of the state.

The Republican organization throughout Pennsylvania is harmonious and aggressive and there is a disposition shown on every hand to maintain the prestige and the influence of the Pennsylvania organization in the party in the nation.

Must Stand By Roosevelt.

Pennsylvania is the bulwark of national Republicanism and any faltering on the part of Pennsylvania Republicans at the coming election which would result in any material decrease in the Republican majority would be taken as indicating a lack of interest and a lack of sympathy in the great policies which the Republican national administration is fathering and is endeavoring to carry out to a successful conclusion.

President Roosevelt needs the full support of Pennsylvania Republicans now as much as he did when he was a candidate before the people for the presidency. He requires the moral and substantial backing of the great Republican state of Pennsylvania in his magnificent undertakings. The opponents of the national administration at home and the Democracy throughout the union would hail with delight the news of a great falling off in the Republican majority in Pennsylvania next fall and would herald it as the turning of the tide from Republicanism all over the country.

Pennsylvania Republicans are too patriotic and too loyal to their party to allow anything of the kind to happen in November.

They are also too practical from a business standpoint to permit that to occur. No state in the union has as much at stake as Pennsylvania in the continued success of Republicanism.

Her vast industrial and manufacturing interests which have thriven under the policy of a protective tariff and which give employment to so many hundreds of thousands of her people, and which have added so much to the wealth and happiness of her citizens and those of other states, have been nurtured and developed under Republican administrations. Their continued prosperity depends largely upon the ascendency of the Republican party in the state and the nation.

The large majorities for Republican candidates in this state which have been greatly due to the activity of the members of the Republican committees in the several counties must be again recorded at the coming election.

Look Ahead to Congress.

This is essential that the Democracy shall not be emboldened to seek to make a desperate battle at next year's highly important elections. Pennsylvania today, with her 31 Republican members, has the largest Republican delegation of any state in the union on the floor of the National House of Representatives. This delegation has been a powerful factor in obtaining much needed recognition of Pennsylvania's interests at Washington.

Appropriations of great sums of money have been secured for the deepening of the Delaware channel, which means the ultimate completion of a harbor which will bring many millions annually to the port of Philadelphia, and which will directly and indirectly benefit almost every county in the state.

Improvements on the Monongahela, Ohio and Allegheny rivers are now under way, the appropriations for which were made by congress as the result of the united efforts of the entire Pennsylvania delegation. It was the same influence which secured for the harbor of Erie an appropriation which is destined to make that one of the greatest harbors on the great lakes. These and other special considerations which come to Pennsylvania are obtained through the fact that the Republican voters of Pennsylvania have held their party organization solid and compact and have refused to be deceived by the allurements of the men who from time to time have sought to encourage and support independent political movements to fuse with the Democracy in local or personal campaigns.

Next year there will be 32 congressmen to elect in Pennsylvania and the canvass for these congressional seats is already under way. The Democrats are eager to have the Republican vote in this state cut down this fall and are talking fusion at every opportunity.

They know that they cannot elect their nominee for state treasurer this fall as well as they know anything. They know also that if by a fusion campaign for state treasurer they can lure Republicans away from their party candidates and their party organization, or keep them from voting, they will be making their initial advances toward capturing several congressional districts in this state next year. They are aware of the fact that some of the districts which are now represented by Republican congressmen were only carried by the Republicans by small majorities, and they are looking to these districts as the battle grounds for next year's congressional campaigning.

They want the Republican vote cut down in those districts this fall, so as to encourage Democrats to get into line for the big prizes to be fought for next year.

Republicans of Pennsylvania are determined to meet every issue in the coming campaign squarely and fairly, and they have no fear of the outcome at the polls.

Hats, Boots and Hearts.

Mrs. Nolan had made some disparaging remarks about the costume of her husband's bosom friend, Mr. Herlihy, and they were promptly resented.

"'His hat is turning green wid age,' is it?" said Mr. Nolan, with fine scorn, "and 'his boots is rusty and cracked lookin',' did I hear ye say? Listen now to me, Mary Nolan. If ivery man's hat an' boots covered as warrm a hearrt as Phelim Herlihy's there'd be more proud wimmin in the worrld!"

Porch Party at Boalsburg.

Miss Margaret Mothersbaugh and her brothers gave a porch party to a number of their friends on the evening of July 7th. In spite of the inclemency of the weather the greater number of the invited guests were present. Miss Margaret is an accomplished young lady, she and her dutiful brothers so royally entertained their friends that no one thought of departing until after the midnight hour. Everybody enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent. Even grandmother Keller, who has already passed three-score-and ten mark, seemed to enjoy it. No doubt the merriment of the young people reverberated her thoughts of the days of her youth. The veranda was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns. Elegant refreshments were served on tables tastefully decorated with the choicest flowers. Miss Margaret Goheen, a graduate of the Millersville State Normal, recited several selections which added very much to the pleasure of the evening. Those present from a distance were Miss Bible of Bellefonte and Mr. Reuben Stuart of Pittsburg.—State College Times.

Charles B. Sandford Dead.

Charles B. Sandford Esq., one of Philipsburg's oldest and most honored citizens, died on Tuesday evening, July 11, of pneumonia and heart trouble. The funeral took place this Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

The deceased was born in England on January 5th, 1827, making his age 78 years, 6 months and 6 days. He came to this country in 1852, first settling at Clearfield. He was appointed superintendent of public schools of Clearfield county in 1861 to fill an unexpired term, and in 1863 and 1866 was elected to fill the same position, which he did most creditably. He came to Philipsburg in 1869, having been elected principal of schools. This position he held for many years. In 1893 he was elected a Justice of the Peace, an office he held uninterruptedly up to the time of his death.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his death four sons and five daughters, viz: William H., Patton; John, Penfield; George F., Philipsburg; Walter, residing in Ohio; Mrs. Mary Burk, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Alice Matley, Philipsburg; Mrs. Annie Hamaker, Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Kate Barto, Reynoldsville, and Miss Eleanor, at home.

AS KNOX VIEWS IT

Republicans Competent to Take Care of Their Own Affairs.

Under the caption, "Good Advice From Senator Knox," the editor of the Erie Daily Times says:

"United States Senator Knox, in a brief interview on the political situation in Pennsylvania, stated to a Pittsburg Dispatch representative Wednesday that he did not see any reason for resorting to any reform movement to regulate any evils that may exist in the Republican party. The senator stated in a few, but well chosen words, his idea of the situation, and it was for the Republicans to take care of their own affairs and to let the Democrats do the same thing.

"There are, of course, a good many people who call themselves reformers, but who are mostly boreheads, disappointed aspirants for office or hopeful Democrats who are anxious for a break in the Republican ranks for no other reason than that they may profit thereby. Senator Knox is a safe, thorough going, highly respected official, and it did not take him long to size up the situation and put it in the proper light before the people of this commonwealth. The Republican party will attend to whatever reforms are necessary, and there will be no disposition shown to prevent all sincere reformers and good Democrats going along in the band wagon, but the leader of the band will be a Republican, and the Republicans will attend to the necessary reforms themselves. That much may as well be understood first as last."

DEMOCRATS BETTER WAIT

Republicans Not Ready to Let Them Parcel Out Offices.

After surveying the situation in the Quaker City through his long distance glasses Editor Brown, of the Columbia County Republican, makes this editorial comment:

"Republicans throughout the interior of the state need not be unduly alarmed because of the big hue and cry raised by certain reformers over some crooked revelations in municipal affairs in Philadelphia. Such things like these happen everywhere, and when they do it does not mean that the party in power is corrupt and must be turned out. The country would be more anxious did it not become more evident every day that the 'reform' is prompted more by an effort to set up a rival organization than to really uncover political or business rottenness. Why should this not be so when it is noted that Mayor Weaver's right hand man is Ex-Judge Gordon, a discredited Democrat of Philadelphia. The mayor certainly cannot divest himself of all charges of playing to the galleries so long as he allows Gordon to lead and control him.

"The Democrats of Pennsylvania need not get ready to parcel out the offices among themselves just yet. The Philadelphia matters will be settled in the courts and not in the yellow journals and when this is done the Republican party will be found doing business at the old stand."

A Bit of Translation.

The difficulty of avoiding "howlers" when one is translating from English into such a language as that of the Micmac Indians of Nova Scotia must be very great, says the London News. We hear from the Bible society of a curious case. In the first edition of St. Matthew in Micmac the translator found when he came to revise it that in chapter xxiv, 7, instead of "Nation shall rise against nation," he had written, "A pair of snowshoes shall rise up against a pair of snowshoes." And yet there was only one letter misprinted—naooktakumiksijik (a nation), having been displaced by naooktakumiksijik (a snowshoe).

Spare Moments.

Chancellor D'Aguesseau, observing that his wife always delayed ten or twelve minutes before she came down to dinner and reluctant to lose so much time daily, began the composition of a work which he prosecuted only while thus kept waiting. At the end of fifteen years a book in three quarto volumes was completed, which ran through three editions and was held in high repute.

Reasonable Request.

Judge—Have you anything to say before I pass sentence upon you? Bank Wrecker—Yes. Don't the rules allow you to take out time from my sentence equal to the length of that miserable speech my lawyer made?—Cleveland Leader.

Simple.

She—Miss Stiffy had always vowed she would never marry. How did she happen to change her mind? He—Why, some one proposed.—Detroit Free Press.

A Straight Backbone.

Regarding proper poise of the body, a straight backbone is the first essential. This lifts the chest sufficiently without straining and flattens the abdomen, giving proper breathing position. Never prepare for a breath; always be ready, standing straight, and the lungs will develop while inhaling and exhaling through the nose.

Force of Habit.

Elite-Angue—Why have you always remained single? Oldbach—Simply from force of habit, I suppose. You know—you know I was born that way.—Philadelphia Record.

When cleaning wall paper use dough made of flour mixed with a little soda and water. The soda will not injure the paper, and the work will be done more readily with it.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

A great many business men today are committing business suicide at the wrong end of their lives.

They mean well at the start, but drift away from their good resolutions

One means or a long and prosperous business life is to have good printing and stationery.

—On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock George Hazel took charge of the grocery store in the Crider's Exchange having purchased the same from Jared Harper. Mr. Hazel is a thorough business man and has for years been the head clerk in Joseph Brothers store. He proposes to make some alterations in the room, repaint and repaper it, and add some new goods. We bespeak for Mr. Hazel a large and growing patronage.

—A trunk was taken from a Southwest Railroad train and deposited in the Greensburg baggage room the other day to await the call of the owner. Pending his appearance the suspicions of the baggage agent were for some reason aroused and the trunk was opened, when to the astonished gaze of the baggageman there was revealed enough dynamite caps, and fuse to have blown up every building on the railroad company's property. When the claimant for the trunk appeared he was arrested and lodged in the Westmoreland jail. —One of the learned professors at the Chicago University has been indulging in some caustic criticism of the Bible. He declares that it is a very fragmentary production, so far as history is concerned, while its literary quality is far beneath his conception of real literature. This new critic is simply revamping old accusations There is not a particle of originality in his remarks. As for the great book, it will remain, the foremost volume in the world, long after the name of its assailant is forgotten.

UNCLAIMED LETTER LIST.

The following letters remain in the Bellefonte Post Office uncalled for July 17th, 1905:

Jonas Boviney, John Nayel Camp, Geo. Elliott, Geo. B. Hoove.

When called for please say advertised

W. W. MONTGOMERY, P. M.

—Mr. Frank Sasserman is acting as barber for the soldier boys at Erie this week.

—Mr. Bonaparte, the new Secretary of navy, permits the announcement that he will accept no railroad passes. That is all right, but why make a public matter out of a personal affair?

—The City Laundry which was started up by Frank T. Kerns as a hand laundry is now a full fledged steam laundry. New machinery has been installed by Mr. Kerns and he is now prepared to do all kinds of work in an up-to-date manner and in short order.

—The commissioners of Lycoming county are going to put concrete floors in three of the new bridges to give the material a trial. It costs more than plank but the use of it will save the county money in the long run, because the plank ordinarily has a short life if the bridge is traveled much. In nearly all the large city bridges concrete is used in the construction of floors and gives better satisfaction than plank.
